BOOK REVIEW: Celebrating Elvis Presley

By KARLA MASS - McClatchy Interactive

"Elvis: Your Personal Fashion Consultant"
Authors Michael Feder, Karan Feder
Harry N. Abrams Inc.
$12.95

Elvis Presley is more than just the King of Rock 'n Roll - according to this new book, he's also the King of Style. What will they think of next? An Elvis postage stamp? (It was issued by the U.S. Postal Service in 1993). If you're a die-hard Elvis Presley fan, you can never get enough Elvis stuff. This paper creation features 18 full-color illustrations of nostalgic fun. And it's more than just a novelty gift or collector's item; it's a "punch out and play" paper doll set. Complete with instructions, durable paper highlights fashionable Elvis at his best. What you do with the many versions of Elvis is up to you!

"Elvis Presley: The Family Album"
Author George Klein
Little, Brown and Company
$29.99

Here's something for the more sophisticated crowd ... a vintage photo album that showcases 150 rare photos of rock 'n roll legend Elvis Presley. Fans will treasure black and white memories that include the loves of his life: Priscilla, Lisa Marie and classic cars. Extended family, band members, army pals and Hollywood connections complete this collection. Words can hardly describe such precious moments, but these photos, retrieved from valuable archives, are the next best thing to being there. Get more than a glimpse of the private and professional life of Elvis Presley. Enjoy one of the most authentic family albums ever created.
